LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

On behalf of Unilever I am pleased to provide the reference for the company Consumer Insight Consulting, which delivered The Sensory Workshop "Fundamentals of the sensory analysis & the verification of the sensory sensitivity" for R&D Foods Team.

The content and the agenda of sensory workshop was tailored to Unilever needs and expectations. The group of participants highly appreciated the expert knowledge, the way of communication, competences and instructive skills of the trainer.

Ms. Agata Markiewicz is considered as professional business partner with strong experience in food industry. Her expertise in sensory area, passion for her work and deep understanding of consumer trends are the best recommendations for her future projects recipients.

With this letter I highly recommend the workshops organization and professional co-operation with the company Consumer Insight Consulting.

Sincerely,

Anna Flader
